

THE DANGERS OF THE BIBLE

Understanding the Difference Between Biblicism and Following Jesus

"The God of the Old Testament is arguably the most unpleasant character in all fiction: jealous and proud of it; a petty, unjust, unforgiving control-freak; a vindictive, bloodthirsty ethnic cleanser; a misogynistic, homophobic, racist, infanticidal, genocidal, filicidal, pestilential, megalomaniacal, sadomasochistic, capriciously malevolent bully." - Richard Dawkins

Biblical Examples: Genesis 19.24
2 Kings 1.10

Accommodation vs Ideal

Slavery
Patriarchy
National Exceptionalism
Monarchy
Violence

John 5.39,40—You study the Scriptures, because you think that in them you will find eternal life. And these very Scriptures speak about me! Yet you are not willing to come to me in order to have life.

Luke 9.51-55—As the time approached for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem. And he sent messengers on ahead, who went into a Samaritan village to get things ready for him; but the people there did not welcome him, because he was heading for Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this, they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven to destroy them?" But Jesus turned and rebuked them. Then he and his disciples went to another village.

2 Timothy 3.16—All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness.

Matthew 23.23 (NRSV)—Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint, dill, and cummin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faith . . .

John 5.36—I have testimony weightier than that of John. For the works that the Father has given me to finish—the very works that I am doing—testify that the Father has sent me.

Hebrews 1.1-3—In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets at many times and in various ways [polytropos - multiple personalities], but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son . . . The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being.

1 Corinthians 13.8-10—Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears.

John 1.17,18—For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God, but the one and only Son, who is himself God and is in closest relationship with the Father, has made him known.

Law Vs. Grace

Matthew 5.17—Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill.

"That the world may be healed." — John 3.17

Law Vs. Truth

Galatians 3.19—Why the Law then? It was added because of transgressions, having been ordained through angels by the agency of a mediator, until the seed would come to whom the promise had been made.

Galatians 3.23-25—Before the coming of this faith, we were held in custody under the law, locked up until the faith that was to come would be revealed. So the law was put in charge of us until Christ came that we might be justified by faith. Now that this faith has come, we are no longer under the supervision of the law.

Galatians 4:1-5—Now I say, as long as the heir is a child, he does not differ at all from a slave although he is owner of everything, but he is under guardians and managers until the date set by the father. So also we, while we were children, were held in bondage under the elementary things of the world. But when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, so that He might redeem those who were under the Law . . .

Luke 9:29-35—And while He was praying, the appearance of His face became different, and His clothing became white and gleaming. And behold, two men were talking with Him; and they were Moses and Elijah, . . . a cloud formed and began to overshadow them; and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. Then a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “ This is My Son, My Chosen One; listen to Him!”
